ten Killed in Faulty Administration of Justice Largely to Blame, Secretary Tells Police Chiefs Climbs Above 100 in CHICAGO, July 19. (Exclusive)-Justice that falters, due to the tangles of our court procedure and maudlin sympathy for the criminal, was arraigned today by Secretary of Commerce Hoover as the principal cause of the increase in violent crimes. He was addressing the 500 members of the International Association of Police Chiefs in convention here, and rather than censuring them for failure to prevent crime, he gave them a word of sympathy because of the handicaps and hindrances to their work which they encounter.

POPE AGHAST AS VATICAN GARDENERS GO ON STRIKE

HOOVER TELLS

ROME, July 19. (Exclusive)—The Pope had a strike on his hands today.

For the first time in history the gardeners of the Vatican laid down their pruning hooks and spades and struck for higher wages. They said their pay for a nine-hour day, fourteen lire or about a haif dollar, is quite insufficient. They said their strike was but a one-day affair to bring their grievance to the Pope's cars.

After recovering from the shock of a labor walkout within the grounds of the apostolic palace, the management agreed to study the question.

As several hundred employees of the fow years and the vatical have in complex to fow problem which taxes the treasury.

As the Holy See is considered a foreign and sovereign State in its relations to the Italian government alinos the loss of the Pope's temporal power and the Vatican servants do not belong to Fascist syndicates it is a moot question whether jurisate would consider them subject to the Pacist labor laws, including the recent prohibition on strikes.

If Lavoro, Pascist labor-syndicate organ, says that although it cannot approve of the gardeners' direspect for their superiors, it would seem but just to try to satisfy their demands.

Former Deserters From Financial Policy of New Premier Are Among Appointees

PARIS, July 19. (P)-Edouard Herriot, who takes M. Briand's place as head of the government, succeeded late tonight in constituting his Cabinet. The official list was given out as follows:

Premier and Poreign Affairs—Edouard Herriot; Minister of Pinance—

The most interesting feature of the new Cabinet is the return of Anatole De Monzie as Minister of Finance. He previously had been at odds with M. Herriot regarding the best means of raising necessary funds for restoring the financial situation. M. Herriot wanted a capital levy; M. De Monzie, a capital loan.

Louis Loucheur, the new Minister of Commerce and considered France's wealthiest industrialist, once deserted M. Herriot with his followers on the question of a capital levy.

The life of the new Cabinet is expected to be extremely effort. This is the opinion in all political groups. including Herriots own party, because the Premier will again have to base his policy on the Socialist program, which the Senate is not likely to accept, and which, even in the Chamber, probably will have a narrow majority, if any.

OBSERVATIONS HILLIS BOUGHT

believe in switching things to suit himself. He came to the Coast three years ago and took a look at Ernie Nevers, who took a look at Ernie Nevers, who had been a substitute end on the freshman team, and announced that he would make a great full-back. He tried big Ed Walker out at half and decided he'd make a good end. Now every-body's wondering just what he's going to do next year with Nevers missing from fullback, and Muggs Mitchell, who was a really fine quarterback without getting much credit for it, missing from the signal-yelping position.

Who do you suppose are the two leading candidates for the quarterback job? None other than Capt. Swan, who is one of the best guards developed in recent years, and Eli Post, a tackie. Pop's answer to queries is that he likes 'em big and rough at quarterback, and that, aside from the actual yelping of numbers, on the offense the quarterback's job is almost the same as that of the running guard. And now they do say that Ed Walker, having played half fairly well and end marvelously, is to setp into the boots of Mr. Nevers at fullback. What next?

boots of Mr. Nevers at fullback. What next?

Remember Tub Spencer, the peppery catcher who served his time in the big leagues and in the Coast League also? Tub is now sleuthing for the Auto Club, and has been for a couple of years, and on Saturdays he catches for the Auto Club ball team, which is leading the league in which it plays. Tub says that Cliff Argue, the ex-Oay star, and Hobo Kincaid, late of U.S.C., are two young men who might have been great ball players if they had stuck with it. Hugh Shay, another club player, is likewise a real top notcher. First thing we know Tub will be putting his Auto Club team in the Coast League.

Speaking of ex-athletes, you ought to see them performing for the various and sundry beach clubs at Santa Monica over the week-ends. They have an interclub participating, and huge crowds watching the excitement. On the various teams are mingling all kinds of players, from high-school boys of recent vintage to ancient demons, like Ed Gilliette of the S.M.A.C. team, who was an all-western star in three sports at Wisconsin fiften years ago, and who is about as good a "spiker" as there is in the league right now.

The Sheiks got by nicely against San Francisco, winning five out of seven games, and may be able to surprise the Senators. However, the odds are all against Oscar and his boys when one remembers the rate the Sacramento club is traveling. Vitt's pitching staff will shave up much better than Sacramento, however, and this may be enough to turn the tide, especially if Kerr. Lee and some of the other Hollywood hitters continue the good stick work they exhibited against the Segis. The Missions play at San Francisco and should gain ground at the excense of Nick Williams. If the Seals lay as listlessly as they did in some of their games here, the Bay City of their games here, the Bay City anxious to some to Los Angeles for the match. It is something unusual for the Ravenna rancher to want to leave home for a bout on the Coast, but the "Tigerman" had intimated previously that he hopes to stage a campaign in Southern California this summer which will bring him to the attention of the athletic commission, whose aid Pesek hopes to enlist in an effort to get Joe Stecher to take the world's championship into the ring with him.

Taylor is no stranger to Pesek. The Wyoming grappier, who weighs 220 pounds and stands six feet one inch tall, wrestled the famous "Tigerman" in 1923 Future Bouts Depend on Outcome of Saturday's Scrap; Flower's Reputation at Stake

That was when Taylor was just becoming a seasoned mat man. To-day he is rated among the foremost mat men of the country and Lou Dare believes he has secured the toughest available opponent for Persex. That Saturday afternoon's shot at Ascot featuring Eddie Huffman and Tiger Plowers in a ten-round battle, will be one of the toughest fights of recent California mitt history is the prediction of boxing men who are interested in Dick Donald's big outdoor event.

future engagements that are pending

The reason for the interest lies in future engagements that are pending for both Flowers and Huffman and it is a cinch that neither is sparing any energy or time to be ready for a tough mill when they get into the ring at Ascot.

Flowers's first fight after his meeting with Huffman will be the defense of his middleweight title against Harry Greb, scheduled for New York August 12.
Following that, he is practically assured of a bout with Faul Berlenbach in New York, considered by many fight experts as the greatest drawing card that could be made in Gotham just now. If successful against the "Astoria Ox." Flowers then plans to go after Jack Delaney in an effort to annex the light-heavyweight crown.

Huffman is already matched with Georges Carpentier for Laight-heavyweight crown.

Huffman is already matched with Georges Carpentjer for Labor Day at Tia Juana, to renew their drawn feud started three months ago in New York. After that hattle, Dick Donald wants the winner of next Saturday's mill to meet Berienbach here.

With all this business in sight both Flowers and Huffman may be depended upon to "level" in their Assot Meeting. Flowers will be well content to outscore kicking early in the melec.

Huffman, but the former sailor is frank in admitting that he is going to try to knock the negro kicking early in the melee.

As an indication of the interest the mill is attracting. Dick Donaid shows a sheaf of letters from out-of-town newspaper men who are planning to attend. Writers from practically every city in California are to be at the ringside, while a number of castern newspapers will have resentatives on hand. The demand for complimentary tickets is also heavy, the best proof of all that the contest is attracting the widest attention. Donaid continues to predict that he will have at least 25,000 persons inside the inclosure when the bell rings for the opening bout, a crowd that would break all records for attendance in outdoor boxing his tory of the West.

The pictures wisch appear on this page were sent in by Famous Players—Lasky with captions sattached. In these captions Paddock is referred to as "the world's fastest human," "world's greatest sprinter," etc. That in itself is a technical violation of amsteur rules, according to Weaver, although Paddock has no control over this sort of publicity which advertises the picture and can only protect himself by refusing to run in the actual film. It will be remembered that Hoff allowed his name to appear in advertising, he being billed as world's champion athlete, despite the fact that it was stated he was getting paid for his dancing and not his pole vaulting. The fact that Hoff's name appeared in the advertising which styled him as a world's champion athlete hurt his standing just about as much as his receiving the money. However, it is understood that Faddock may be safe provided there is no mention made in screen titles, table of contents, etc., to the fact that he is the world's champion sprinter. His work on the stage is graceful, but it is work nevertheless.
He is earnest about it. He says sparring on the stage is harder than fighting. When a fight ends you are through. One sparring session before the footlights brings on another. Saturday he will have four on his hands.
His act goes over with a bang.
Clad in Justrous purple tights,
"Jorgay" puts on a snappy session of combined shadow boxing, calisthenics and a three-round boxing exhibition with a lightheavyweight gent from Detroit named Danny Orban. The latter
punches to the whiskers and is floored, but not counted out.
Carpentier's famous right-hand draws a big laugh by the use of the forbidden plvot sock as the boys shake hands for the last round. Winding up the program,
"Jorgay" steps down to the footlights, makes a neat little speech and is roundly applauded.

Appearing with Carpentier in his act is Jack Curley, his jovial manager and a well-known celebrity in both the wresting and puglistic world.

It's tough weather for Jack these days. All he does is hold a timepiece in his hands, tell the audience what Georges is about to do, call the rounds and spend the rest of the time mopping his brow. He must have perspired freely enough yesterday to fill a couple of buckets. Jack is not as lithe nor as lean as Georges. Hot weather always did tell on a fat man.

vested the fort, and adds that "a decent one was soon contrived."

"The white stripes were cut out of ammunition shirts; the blue out of ammunition shirts; the blue out of camulet cloak taken from the enersy at Peekskill, while the red stripes were made of different pieces of stuff procured from one and another of the garrison," the narrative says quoting a letter written by Lieut. Col. Willett at Hartford, Ct. Speaking of the final action at Fort Stanwix on August it adds.

"We totally routed two of the enemy's encampments, brought off upward of x x x five colours, the whole of which on our return to the fort were displayed on our flagstaff under the continental flag."

In view of these first-hand statements, War Department historical authorities are satisfied that the continental flag mentioned was in fact the stars and stripes in its original form.

WASHINGTON, July 19. (P)-Army washington, July 19. (49—Army historians have unearthed evidence that the stars and stripes got its baptism of fire in land battle in this defense of Fort Stanwix, N. Summer and winter, but they lack arrangements for beliboys to carry the linkling pitchers to the rooms, as the English people have no such habit.

Gen. Andrews reached London during one of the hottest spells in several years, so that when he requested a constant supply of ice water the head waiter was appealed to and that functionary unearthed the largest cut glass pitcher of its kind in the hotel. This pitcher has sometimes been used at State functions, but ordinarily it is kept in retirement.

At the request of historical so cicties, the War Department began a search which has brought to light a work entitled "A narrative of the military actions of Col. Ex-Angeleno Loses Suit for $38,000 as Judge Rules Divorce Not Recognized

READING (Pa.) July 19. (Exclu tive)—Too many wives cost John Wil-liam Schweitzer $38,000. Schweitzer merly of Los Angeles, has just lost suit here for the estate of Caroine K. Steinmets who died in Brook lyn, N. T., where he was living with her on October 12, 1918. She left a $38.000 estate. Schweitzer declared her on October 12, 1918. She left a $38.000 estate. Schweitzer declared he was the husband of the woman and father of a child born to them. This child died, lesving Sthweitzer, he said, its sole heir.

Judge Schaeffer in Orphans' Court here has declared in a decision that while Schweitzer married the woman in Reading on December 8, 1917, he was not her legal husband, because he already had two wives living at the time of the ceremony, one in Los Ang.les, the other in Vancouver, B. C. The Los Angeles wife, Hattle Klein, also was a resident of Seattle, but she obtained a divorce in Los Angeles in 1911. This divorce, Judge Schaeffer holds, cannot be recognized under Pennsylvania law.

While the Los Angeles divorce was pending. Judge Schaeffer says. Schweitzer took Florence Post from Seattle to Vancouver, B. C., and in the latter city was fharried to her by a notary public. Schweitzer is said to have deserted the woman and their two children in Vancouver. He came here without having divorced the Vancouver woman, it was said. As a result of the ruling, the $38,000 estate goes to Miss Steinmetz, half-sister of Mary Elizabeth Steinmetz.

Loans That Encourage Thrift

ANY home owners who are trying more or less unsuccessfully to save money, are carrying short-term loans on their properties and paying comparatively high rates of interest plus the costs of periodical re-

On the other hand, many people have solved the saving problem by carrying fifteen-year loans (at 6½% interest) and paying them off at the rate of 3% semi-annually. On a $4000 loan, for example, this is equivalent to saving $20 per month.

Perhaps your present first mort-gage could be advantageously re-placed with this form of loan. May we discuss the matter with

System Founded in 1852

Sources of 1925 Earnings

The Associated System supplies three main types of service—electricity, gas and water. All are necessities of everyday life, and the demand for them is constantly growing. Furnishing three types of service adds to the diversity in earnings.

Considerably the largest source of revenue is from electricity. Over 77% of the gross earnings and over 85% of the net earnings in 1925 (see charts) were from electricity. The greater relative percentage of net earnings from electricity enhances the possibilities of growth of the company.

Liquor Say Offi OUR "HARBOR COMMISSION" FAVERSHAM OUT

Who really runs Los Angeles Harbor affairs? Who is actually responsible for the extraordinary condi- Pilgrimage Play Officials tions which have been described in The Times in its series of harbor articles published during the past three weeks?

Norminally the administration of harbor affairs is vested by the city charter in a board of five Harbor Commissioners appointed by the Mayor, which means in fact by Kent K. Parrot and H. H. (Me Too) Kinney, the busy secretary to the Actually just one man runs things—unless you count "Boss" Parrot. That man is Walter B. Allen, president of the Harbor Commission.

The other members of the board are Frank Meline, the real estate man; ex-ludge Robert M. Clarke, lawyer and Parrot's candidate for United States Senators; Clinton E. Burge, a paint dealer, and O. M. Souden, a banker. With the exception of Mr. Meline these commissioners cut practically no figure. Clarke was put on the board by Parrot for the advertising he could get out of that important and responsible position for use in his campaign for Senator. He knows almost nothing about harbor affairs and does not pretend to know amything about them. He wastes little time on harbor business.

Mr. Burge and Mr. Souden are business men with little time to give to public affairs. Mr. Meline has given a lot of time and energy to Harbor Department work and has done all he could to combat conditions of which he does not approve. At the same time he admits that he has been kept in ignorance of much that was being done and has demanded an investigation of some of the more notorious deals—as, for example, the letting to Emil Cykler of the famous "Black Baby" pile contract at the highest of five bids and for piling which the department's own official tests had just shown to be the weakest of all.

The men who run Los Angeles Harbor are President Allen and his two exceptives of the Markey Engineer. Seed attorneys H. Harris and Vander and his two exceptives George F. Nicholson Harbor Engineer. The other members of the board are Frank Meline, the be the weakest of all.

The men who run Los Angeles Harbor are President Allen and his two executives, George F. Nicholson, Harbor Engineer, and Charles H. Spear, general manager. Both men were named through Allen's influence and part of their jobs is to do as Allen says. Allen admits that before Nicholson was hired he telegraphed him to find out where he would stand on the two chief points of controversy then before the board—Ludlow and "Black Baby"—and that he would not have appointed him had Nicholson not been "right" on both points.

Mention has been made before of the fact that, besides being president of the Board of Harbor Commissioners, Allen is also president of Allen Brothers, trucking contractors, who do a very large hauling business at the harbor and maintain an office there.

very large hauling business at the harbor and maintain an office there.

Now there are few large concerns doing business at the harbor who do not also have to do business with the Harbor Commission at intervals. By the same token, these same concerns have a great deal of commercial hauling to do, trucking being one of the biggest single businesses in any harbor neighborhood.

Consequently many of the most profitable customers of Walter B. Allen, trucking contractor, are firms and individuals who from time to time have business to do with and favors to ask of Walter B. Allen, president of the Harbor Commission.

Eastman's absence. It was a very long role, fraught with exceptional difficulties in the learning.

Mr. Faversham said he approved of Miss Dickson's changes in the script, but strongly disapproved of her direction, which, he declared, was mateurish to a degree and maje rehearsals were held. Moreover, these rehearsals were held in the late afternoon against his pleas that they should be held in the morning—because the morning sun sunburned the lady director. So, at least said Mr. Faversham.

who from time to time have business to do with and favors to ask of Walter B. Allen, president of the Harbor Commission. If they favor Contractor Allen with profitable hauling jobs over his tracking competitors it is only human nature for them to expect a favorable attitude toward their desires on the part of President Allen of the Harbor Board. On the other hand, if he were disposed to do so, President Allen as active head of the whole vast Harbor Department business, would have inmurable opportunities to be of great practical assistance to a deserving firm of harbor trucking contractors.

However sealously Mr. Allen may strive to maintain the unmixed identities of his dual personality it appears that he unmixed identities of his dual personality it appears that he unmixed identities of his dual personality it appears that he tractor doing official Harbor Department business and vice-versa. For example, when he fired W. R. Sadler, the expert who conducted the tests which were so unfavorable to Mr. Allene's favored "Black Baby" piles, the firing was done at the Alameda-street office of Allen Brothers, trucking contractors, notwithstanding that it was very distinctly official Harbor Department a contractor with an enormous financial stake in private harbor business is one of such howling absurdity as to be impossible anywhere except under a bossification of the suit Kent K. Allen's predecessor as president of the Harbor Commission was another "administration" man, Edgar McKee. Readers of The Times will recall that it was the results of an investigation by The Times of Harbor conditions under the McKee regime which led to a grand jury investigation and finally, after a very long and painful delay, to the reluctant removal of McKee by Mayor Cryer.

A curious sidelight on the present situation is the now almost-forgotten incident of the McKee-Cykler drawing-room. Then as now, Emil Cykler had a way of getting pretty much anything he wanted from the Harbor Board. One of them was a lease on the West Basin for Cykler's Pan-Pacific Construction Company at very low rental rates, RATES WHICH HAD pany at very low rental rates, RATES WHICH HAD BECOME OBSOLETE EIGHT MONTHS BEFORE. The investigation which developed among other things the suits of clothes donated to McKee by persons with business to do with the Harbor Board also brought out that Cykler was likewise in the habit of doing little favors for McKee. For example, when McKee went to New Orleans as the city's delegate to the convention of the American Association of Port Authorities, he desired a drawing-room on the train. The city did not provide that luxury but Mr. Cykler did. He bought Mr. McKee a drawing-room and paid for it. It was explained later by both McKee and Cykler that this was merely a temporary accommodation and that, of course, Mr. McKee refunded the price of the drawing-room to Mr. Cykler. They were very good friends, intimate in fact.

With the severance of Mr. McKee's official relations with the Harbor Department, however, Mr. Cykler appears to have transferred his points of contact, if not his affections, to others in a position to be of greater assistance to him in his business.

Just, what the end will be is not easy to determine. The French are a curious folk. Bepeatedly in history they have been their own worst enemies. They blame others for their own errors; and waste the time in incriminations and recriminations that might be devoted to evading disaster.

According to the European cables, the French press is blaming the financial policy of the American government for the new collapse of the franc, and the radical wing of the press is demanding unconditional repudiation. Yet the $30,000,000 annual payment which our government is willing to accept would not run the French ing to accept would not run the French three days.

Possibly the gravest feature of the situation is that the French people, following the press, are blaming others for their own errors. They look to the cutside for support that can come only from within. They look to the radicals for aid; and it is the radical legislation since the war that has precipitated the present crisis. Putting a radical government in charge to stabilize economic and financial conditions is like trying to extinguish a fire with kerosene. An explosion is certain to follow, one which the sermon begins to deag or just before the collection basket is about to be circulated.

The sooner the quicker

After November 1 it is promised that there will be an average cut of five hours in the time of all trains running from Chicago to Los Angeles. This will be a mighty boon to the citizens of Chicago. They will realize what it means to get here five hours sooner.

Plenty of Backing

Nearly 200 country newspapers in California are working for the re-election of Gov. Richardson on a platform of pledges of sconomy fulfilled and political bosses abolished. It is hardly safe to say that this backing and this cause amount to little. The voters are apt to believe that it is the big thing.

COMPLETE DISGUISE

Mexico City has an ordinance under which the car of any speeding motorist who injures some one is confiscated and sold for the benefit of the injured. This law, it is reported, was devised by a mere human to the college and declare all private property for feited to the government.

While this was an increase of $10,000,000 over the preceding twelve months, it is still more significant that the exports for the first half that the exports for the first half of 1928 were more than, $11,000,000 greater than those in the previous six months. In other words, from January to June, Los Angeles exported $47,212,613 worth of merchandise compared with $35,856,743 in the last half of 1928.

If this same rate of increase continues Los Angeles will export nearly $60,000,000 worth of goods in the coming six months, or well in excess of the $100,000,000 mark for the calendar year.

The woman who is his wife is also his mother and when he falls in love with another girl, she quite approves and tells him he is just like his father. If the truth be known, he is his own father! That may sound somewhat complicated to the reader, but all who have seen the picture "Bon of the Shelk" now in the second week of its world premiere at the Million Boliar have solved the mystery. They know that Valentino plays two roles—one the father and the other the son. Vilma Banky is the girl and Agnes Ayres the wife and mother.

THAN HALF A CENTURY OF PROGRESSIVE BANKING SERVICE

No business man gets tired of hearing things that demonstrate the stability of the bank where he has an account. The most interesting and impressive story of stability ... of rock-ribbed strength and soundness... that can be told by any bank in Southern California is that suggested under this headline ...

One bundred and nineteen years ago the first gas mains were laid in Pall Mall, London. All England made fun of the notion of "lighting London by smoke." When a bill was beought up to grant charters to gas companies, a member of Parliament exclaimed: "Light without a wick-impossible".

The years here seen the gas industry take its place in the forefront of major public estilities.

The Sir Per Cent Preferred Stock of the Southern California Gas Company reflects the industry's strength, its stability, and its promise.

FOUNDING OF COLLEGE CELEBRATED

Birthday Anniversary of Woodbury Business School Honored by Students

Woodbury Business College celebrated its forty-second birthday anniversary yesterday. It was the best attended birthday party in the city in many months.

Bome 850 tyro stenographers, book-keepers, business executives and private secretaries, all students in the college, participated in the feetivities and shared the huge birthday cake which occupied the piace of honor on the platform.

The college was founded just forty-two years ago yesterday and from less than a score of students it has grown to number more than 850. R. H. Whitten, president of the school, acted as toastmaster. The birthday cake was cut by his wife, Mrs. Priscills L. Whitten.

B. P. Pearson of the Southern Callfornia Edison Company addressed the students in the auditorium of the school at 727 South Figueroa street on the principles of success of the business world.

The remainder of the program consisted of songs by the college glee club, whistling solos by Dorothy Kaufman and a soprano solo by Eva Cook.
